

Sentence Stems...

Cut into strips. Each student pulls out a strip one at a time and finishes the sentence.

Variation: Student then gets to pick someone else who hasn't yet responded to respond to the same sentence stem. When the second person finishes, s/he selects the next sentence stem.

Because of the experience today, I would like to learn more about...

One thing I learned today from others in the community...

One impact I would like to have in my lifetime is...

One thing I am wondering is...

One thing that surprised me today...

Community service is/is not important to me because...

If I could change anything about the world, I wish ...

One thing I would like to learn more about from this community is ...

One thing I learned about this community is ...

What I liked best about the experience today is...

What I liked least about the experience today is...

One thing I learned about myself today is ...

One way I think I made a contribution today is...

I think today's experience relates to our College Park Scholars program because...

One thing I learned today about others is...